CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS

WISCONSIN JUVENILE COURT CLERKS' ASSOCIATION

ARTICLE I – Name and Purpose

Section 1: Name. The name of this organization shall be the Wisconsin Juvenile Court Clerks' Association.

Section 2: Object and Purpose. The object and purpose of this organization shall be to unite the Clerks of Juvenile Court and Juvenile Clerks of the Wisconsin Circuit Court system and Tribal Court Clerks into a cooperative body to increase their effectiveness in the performance of their duties and the administration of juvenile law. Through seminars and educational programs, the issuance of newsletters, and the exchanging of experiences and ideas, it is believed that the individual member will derive the benefits of greater efficiency, a better understanding of juvenile law and develop professional skills to perform their duties.

ARTICLE II – Membership and Dues

Section 1: A person who has been appointed as Clerk of Juvenile Court by the Circuit Court Judges for the County, subject to approval of the Chief Judge of the Judicial Administrative District, or a person who has been appointed or assigned the duties of Clerk of Juvenile Court, Juvenile Clerk and Tribal Court Clerk shall be considered an active member upon payment of the annual dues. Such membership, however, shall terminate immediately when a member ceases to hold one of these positions.

Section 2: Dues. The annual dues shall be $40.00, payable on April 1st of each year. A Clerk of Juvenile Court or Deputy Clerk of Court, appointed between April 1st and March 31st of the following year, may join at any time upon full payment of dues.

ARTICLE III – Officers and Elections

Section 1: Officers. The officers of this organization shall be:

- A. President
- B. Vice-President
- C. Secretary
- D. Treasurer

Section 2: Duties.

A. PRESIDENT.

- The President shall perform the duties traditionally and customarily exercised by such office as well as other duties that are assigned by the Executive Committee.
- Chair the Executive Committee and call meetings when needed.
- Keep informed of current issues and/or legislation of concern to the organization.
- Guide the organization regarding current practices and techniques relating to management.

B. VICE-PRESIDENT. The Vice President shall:

- Have all the powers and duties of the President in the absence or disability of the President to perform such duties.
- Perform such other duties as may be assigned by the Executive Committee.
- Perform such other duties assigned by the President.

C. SECRETARY. The Secretary shall:

- Record and preserve the minutes of all the meetings of the organization
- Record and preserve the minutes of all meetings of the Executive Committee;
- Within sixty (60) days of any annual meeting, provide a copy of the minutes of the meeting of the organization and/or Executive Committee to the members.
- Maintain and preserve all documents and records having reference to the business of the organization.
- Present all acknowledgements and awards, including but not limited to, awards accorded to retired members, and shall keep a permanent record of the same.

C. TREASURER. The Treasurer shall:

- Keep the roll of the members.
- Receive all funds including members dues.
- Disburse funds and pay any bills of the organization.
- Keep a written record of the organization's financial accounts.
- Take the roll of membership.
- Prepare a report of the organization's financial receipts, disbursements and financial condition at the annual meeting.
- Following the annual meeting, the Treasurer shall send an invoice to each Clerk of Juvenile Court, Juvenile Clerk and Tribal Court Clerk whose dues remain unpaid. If such dues remain unpaid 60 days after the issuance of an invoice, active member status shall be suspended. Such suspension will result in the loss of the privilege to vote, serve on committees and hold office. All privileges shall be reinstated upon receipt of the current year's dues and any past delinquent dues.

Section 3: Nominations.

At least sixty days prior to the annual meeting, the Nominating Committee shall solicit by e-mail from the membership, the names of eligible members for each position to be filled. To be eligible for selection, a candidate for a specific position shall not have served in that position within the last five years, except those serving in their first term of office. The list of candidates so chosen shall be filed with the Secretary at least thirty days before the annual meeting. The Secretary shall mail a copy thereof to each member at least fifteen days before such meetings or cause said list of candidates to be published in the Association Newsletter prior to the annual meeting.

The privilege of nominating from the floor shall be available to all members present at the annual meeting in supplementation of the Nominating Committee's action.

Section 4: Elections.

All officers shall be elected by majority vote of the members present at the annual meeting of the organization. Where more than two members are nominated for any one office, the one receiving the least number of written votes shall be eliminated from the next succeeding ballot.

Section 5: Terms.

Officers shall take office following the election and will hold office for a two year period or until a successor has been appointed. The Treasurer elected shall take office and control all of the funds no later than 30 days after the selection to allow the present Treasurer to pay the expenses of the seminars and transfer the accounts and funds to the newly elected Treasurer. Length of time in any elected office is limited to one two-year term. Any eligible member elected to fill a vacancy of Secretary or Treasurer shall hold that office until the next election of the entire executive board at the association's annual meeting.

ARTICLE IV – EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

Section 1: Membership and Terms.

The Executive Committee shall consist of the current President, Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer and the immediate past President of this Association. The term of any member of the Executive Committee shall expire when the member no longer holds the elected position.

Section 2: Vacancies.

The Executive Committee shall cause the President to solicit from the Association membership the name of any Clerk of Juvenile Court, Juvenile Clerk, or Tribal Court Clerk interested in completing the unexpired term of the Vice President, Secretary or Treasurer whenever a vacancy occurs, irrespective of cause. If more than one member indicates a willingness to serve, the President shall present the list of names to the membership via e-mail and voting shall be conducted by e-mail for this vacancy only. Once voting has been completed, the President shall inform the membership of the newly elected Vice President, Secretary or Treasurer. If vacancy occurs in the Presidency, the Vice President shall assume those duties, and at the next scheduled meeting of the membership, an election shall be held for Vice-President.

Section 3: Special Election due to Vacancies.

The Executive Committee shall cause the President to solicit from the Association membership the name of any Clerk of Juvenile Court, Juvenile Clerk, or Tribal Court Clerk interested in completing the unexpired term of the Vice President, Secretary or Treasurer whenever a vacancy occurs within 45 (forty-five) days of the annual meeting, irrespective of cause. When a vacancy occurs in any executive board office, the remaining officers shall be notified of the vacancy. The remaining executive board shall notify the Chair of the Nominating Committee of the vacancy. The Chair of the Nominating Committee shall work with the other members of the Nominating Committee to either: 1) nominate a member for the current vacancy and send that nomination to the Secretary, or if the Secretary position is vacant to the President, within seven (7) days of the annual meeting, or 2) solicit nominations from the floor at the annual meeting.

Section 4: Powers and Duties.

A. The management and direction of the organization's affairs shall be by the Executive Committee. It shall have the sole authority to incur indebtedness or to grant permission to officers and committees to incur indebtedness provided, however, that no single item of expense shall exceed the sum of four hundred dollars ($400.00) unless consent to such expenditure is first obtained from the Executive Committee.

B. Between meetings of the organization, the Administrative Power shall be vested in the Executive Committee. The Executive Committee in addition to the specific duties prescribed and defined in the Constitution, shall exercise general supervision over the organization.

C. The Executive Committee may create additional or special committees at any time for specified purposes or definite periods.

D. The Executive Committee shall hold meetings at the call of the President or upon written request of a majority of the Committee.

Section 5: Meetings – Quorum.

A. The Executive Committee shall hold meetings at the call (request) of the President or upon written request of a majority of the Committee. A meeting may be held via telephone conference if a quorum of the Executive Committee is present.

B. Three members of the Executive Committee attending the meeting shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. Individual members of the association, collectively or singly, shall have the right to attend any meeting of the Executive Committee and to state any grievance or urge special action pertaining to the welfare of the organization. The membership shall be emailed of the time, date, place and agenda of each Executive Committee meeting within ten (10) days of the meeting.

ARTICLE V – Meetings

Section 1: Annual Meeting.

The annual meeting of the organization shall be held in each calendar year, on a date to be fixed and at a place to be designated by the Executive Committee or by the general membership at the preceding annual meeting.

Section 2: Special Meetings.

Special meetings shall be held upon order of the Executive Committee. At least ten days written notice, specifying the purpose thereof, shall be given prior to the date of any special meeting by email or mail to the membership.

Section 3: Quorum.

One-half of the membership attending shall constitute a quorum for the conduct of business at the annual or any other general meeting of this organization and the majority vote of the members present shall be sufficient to carry any question.

ARTICLE VI – Committees

Section 1: Standing Committees.

The permanent Committees of this Association shall be:

- A. Nominating Committee
- B. Legislative Committee
- C. Auditing Committee
- D. Form Committee
- E. Conference Committee
- F. Newsletter Committee
- G. Orientation Committee

Section 2: Committee Structure

The President shall appoint at least three members to the Nominating and Forms Committees, and at least two members to all other committees. The Conference Committee shall consist of one executive committee officer appointed by the President, two association members appointed by the President, the Chair of the Orientation Committee and one or two juvenile clerks from the host district as appointed by the President. Appointment to committees may be made at any time during the term of each President. When a new President is elected, he or she shall solicit interest from members in good standing to serve on committees. The members appointed to each committee shall select a Chair of that committee. If no Chair is selected by the committee, the President shall select the Chair.

ARTICLE VII – Miscellaneous

Section 1: Fiscal year.

The fiscal year shall be April 1st through March 31st of the following calendar year.

Section 2: Voting.

- A. All voting at any meeting of this Association shall be by the individual members without privilege of voting by proxy.
- B. Advisory referenda may be had by mail voting upon order of the Executive Committee.

Section 3: Audits and Reports.

A. The records and books of cash accounts of all organization officers and committees shall be subject to examination by the Executive Committee, and an audit by the Auditing Committee. The Treasurer shall submit a written report to the Secretary by email seven (7) days prior to the annual meeting. The Secretary shall make the Treasurer's written report available by email to the members.

The Auditing Committee will make an oral report of its audit at all annual meetings and at such other times as the Executive Committee shall direct.

B. At the annual meeting the Chairperson of the standing committees and each elected officer shall give an oral report reviewing the affairs and business of committees and officers with such comments, suggestions and recommendations as in their judgment will be of interest to the members and for the general welfare of the organization.

Section 4: Amendments.

These By-Laws may be altered or amended at any regular business meeting of the Association by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the members present, provided, however, that the proposed change shall have been filed in writing with the Secretary at least thirty days before such meeting and all members shall have been sent a written copy of such proposed change at least ten days before such meeting.

Section 5: Use of email.

The use of email shall be considered an official means of communication among the membership; and shall be used to circulate the Association newsletter.
