When students encounter law enforcement, delinquency and criminal laws can intersect with school discipline. Examine how courts analyze the legal standards for on-campus questioning and locker searches, review common charges arising from school conduct, and consider potential outcomes, ranging from suspension and expulsion to criminal charges. The presenters will also explain students' rights related to suspension, expulsion, and special education.

Presenters:

Eileen Fredericks – Attorney, State Public Defender's Office
Paisley Hoffman – Attorney, Nicholson Goetz & Otis, S.C.

- There is no registration fee.
- Continuing education credits will be offered for judicial officers, attorneys, and social workers.
- The webinar will also be recorded and available on-demand at: www.wicciptraining.com.
